Reddford House Class of 2025 achieves 100% pass rate and 240 distinctions across three Johannesburg campuses

Johannesburg – Reddford House, part of the globally renowned Inspired Education Group, is celebrating the achievements of its Class of 2025 following the release of the Independent Examinations Board (IEB) National Senior Certificate results, with excellent individual performances across its three Johannesburg campuses.

Across Reddford House Blue Hills, Northcliff and The Hills, 199 candidates wrote the IEB examinations, achieving a 100% pass rate and a 94% Bachelor's Degree pass rate. In total, the group achieved 240 distinctions, underlining the depth of academic performance across this proudly non-selective school group.

Fourteen students achieved an A aggregate, while a further 56 students achieved a B aggregate, highlighting both top-end excellence and consistent performance across the cohort.

Recognising national Top 1% achievement

Reddford House students were recognised among the country's top performers, with several achieving IEB Top 1% results nationally in their respective subjects.

At Reddford House Blue Hills, Sharmista Daya and Tejendran Naidu achieved Top 1% recognition in Life Orientation, while Emmanuel Yamoah achieved Top 1% recognition in Mathematical Literacy, reflecting strong subject performance across the campus.

At Reddford House Northcliff, Xina Ramnarian achieved Top 1% nationally for Computer Applications Technology, reinforcing the campus's strength in applied and technology-focused subjects.

At Reddford House The Hills, a student achieved Top 1% nationally for History.

Reddford House Blue Hills

Reddford House Blue Hills achieved 108 distinctions in total, an overall average of 68.53%, a 100% pass rate and a 97% Bachelor's Degree pass rate. 48% of the students achieved an A or B aggregate.

Students who achieved five or more distinctions include Neha Balipursad, Sharmista Daya, Leago Mogaladi, Vukanimangwe Nsele, Kirtin Parbhoo and Chaitanya Somisetty.

Reddford House Northcliff

Reddford House Northcliff achieved a 100% pass rate, a 92% Bachelor's Degree pass rate and 66 distinctions, with an overall average of 65.49%. Notably, 33% of students achieved an A or B aggregate, reflecting strong aggregate performance across the cohort.

Some of the students who achieved five or more distinctions are Kaira Abrahams, Venus Moyo, Yaidan Naidu, Gabriel Ramalho, Xina Ramnarian, Kailesh Ramsewak and Nikaël Vandeyar.

Reddford House The Hills

Reddford House The Hills continued to strengthen its academic performance, achieving a 93% Bachelor's Degree pass rate, a 100% pass rate, 66 distinctions and an overall average of 63.97%. Two students – Nasilele Nyambe and Thabang Pule – received five or more distinctions.

Reddford House is proudly non-selective, focused on meeting students where they are and supporting them to exceed their personal best through strong teaching, structured academic support and a holistic approach to education.

Ravi Nadasen, CEO of Inspired Education Group Africa and the Middle East, said, "These achievements reflect the dedication of our teachers, the unwavering support of our parent communities and the hard work and resilience of our students. Reddford House demonstrates what is possible when high expectations and personalised support come together in a non-selective environment, allowing every student the opportunity to grow and succeed."